

MoMA After Hours FAQ

How do I attend?

Purchasing tickets in advance is recommended. MoMA After Hours tickets are $30 when purchased in advance. A limited number of tickets will be available onsite for $45, starting at 7:00 p.m. on the day of the event. Tickets are not available earlier in the day at the Museum. Debit or credit card only; no cash accepted.

Does this ticket include Museum admission during the day?

No, this ticket does not include regular Museum admission during the day of the event. This ticket is exclusively for entry to MoMA After Hours beginning at 7:00 p.m.

When and where can I enter the Museum?

Check-in begins at 7:00 p.m. at the Museum's main entrance, located at 11 West 53rd Street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues in Manhattan. The last entry will be at 9:30 p.m.

Do MoMA members receive priority access?

Member tickets are $15. Members can reserve their tickets in advance online or onsite at the event, starting at 7:00 p.m. Members can purchase guest tickets for $15, in amounts based on their membership level. Additional tickets can be purchased at the regular MoMA After Hours ticket price.

Will there be a priority line for member entry?

No, there will not be a priority line for member entry. All guests will enter at the Museum's main entrance at 11 West 53rd Street, starting at 7:00 p.m.

Am I eligible for a free ticket?

A limited number of tickets will be reserved at the event for guests who qualify for free admission. This includes students and employees at select colleges and universities, staff of other museums, and those receiving food assistance. For these categories, tickets must be reserved in person. Please have your affiliate ID when you arrive at the Museum. See details about free admission categories.

Can I leave the Museum and re-enter?

Yes. Re-entry will be permitted with proof of ticket purchase.

Will the checkroom be available?

Yes, there will be a checkroom open during this event for coats and personal items smaller than 11" × 17" × 5". Please note that all bags will be inspected upon arrival. The Museum reserves the right to prohibit any items and to require visitors to check any bags or items. See a full list of prohibited items.

Will there be food and beverages available for purchase?

Yes. There will be pop-up bars located in the main lobby and the Sculpture Garden (weather permitting), serving a selection of drinks and snacks for purchase. Debit or credit card only; no cash accepted.

Can I refund or exchange my ticket?

Event tickets cannot be transferred, refunded, or exchanged.